The new location for Storehouse West Virginia <sup>TM</sup> is 1313 Hansford Street, Charleston, WV 25301.

To reach the Storehouse get off I64 at Exit 100, Leon Sullivan Way. Go straight ahead to the traffic light. At the light turn left on Washington Street (The Clay Center will be on your right.) Go to the second traffic light and turn left on Morris Street. Go through the traffic light (at Smith Street), go over the Railroad track and turn right on Hansford Street. You will pass a metal building on the right and then come to the Storehouse, also on the right.

The main loading dock is at the back of the fenced in parking lot before the building. At this point, you will have to enter the Storehouse through the small door with the sign, at the top of the stairs, toward the front of the building.
